

Science education helps Iowa grow

Science literacy is important for a competitive workforce. The newspaper is a great way for teachers to help students understand science. We are proud to promote science education.

This newspaper is providing science and agriculture education materials to area educators

These materials are provided with support from:

PIONEER
A DUPONT COMPANY

