

Iowa Newspaper Employees Disaster Relief Fund

The damage to much of Iowa from the tornados and floods of 2008 has been well-documented by the newspapers of Iowa. One of the stories behind the story is the personal hardship suffered by many of the newspaper employees helping to deliver critical weather information to the public. Another story is the generosity of newspaper people helping newspaper people to cope with these disasters.

The Iowa Newspaper Foundation wants to help you help these people in need. Newspaper employees in many cities and smaller towns face personal losses. Some employees have had their homes and personal belongings destroyed or severely damaged in the floods and storms.

The Iowa Newspaper Foundation has established a fund to help these employees, many of whom have contributed to the outstanding coverage despite their personal upheaval.

Please consider helping those in need with a tax-deductible contribution. Thanks in advance for your help.

The INF is a 501(c)3 organization. All donations are tax deductible.
